I. V. Button Died In Berkeley

I. V. Button, a former resident of Petaluma, died in Berkeley hospital Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, after a protracted illness. He will be remembered here by older residents. Mr. Button was aged 96 years when death came.

Born in Vermont, he came to California when a young man and located in this city in the early days, erecting one of the first houses which occupied a site on D street, the lot now owned by F. H. Denman. The old house was moved to E street and is still in good condition.

Mr. Button left here for Nevada, where he made a fortune in stock. Retiring a number of years ago he removed to Berkeley to be with his daughter, Mrs. Ella Button-Brown. He leaves a son, Vermont (Monte) Button, of San Francisco, and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Catherine Camm of D street is a niece. He also leaves a grandson, John McAllan Brown, Jr.

Mr. Button's wife, the late Mrs. Ellen B. Button, died 8 years ago. She was a prominent W. C. T. U. worker. He will rest beside her and their six children in the family plot in Cypress Hill cemetery.

The services were held at 1:15 o'clock Monday afternoon at Cypress Hill Memorial Park. Rev. N. J. Breed, pastor of the Congregational church, officiated.

Blackburn & Sorensen had charge of the funeral arrangements here, the body being brought from Berkeley by auto hearse.

Many years ago Mr. Button used to ship hundreds of horses here from his ranges in Nevada.
